

THE INDIANA CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION'S

2016 STATEWIDE CONTINUING LEGAL EDUCATION PROGRAM

Mark your calendars - The Indiana Civil Rights Commission (ICRC) will be hosting their 2016 Statewide Continuing Legal Education Program to celebrate more than 50 years of service to Hoosiers. This year's series will consist of six seminars that provide legal professionals with low cost Continuing Legal Education (CLE) credits. Each of the seminars will provide a background and legal updates in local, state and federal anti-discrimination laws.

Date (2016)	City (Indiana)	Topic
April 13 & 14	Indianapolis	Housing
*June 10	Gary	Employment
*August 26	Elkhart	Title VII
*September 9	Richmond	TBD
October 14	Evansville	TBD
*November 10	Indianapolis	Veterans Rights

Specific times and locations will be made available closer to the seminar dates. Each seminar offers 3.0 credit hours and costs $35 to attend. Light refreshments will be provided. Details are subject to change.

*Registration is currently open for these seminars. Visit www.in.gov/icrc/cleprogram

These seminars will be held as a part of the ICRC's 2016 State of Indiana Fair Housing Conference. Price and credit hours for this event are TBD.

For questions: Call Darren Thomas at (317) 232-2624 or e-mail darthomas@icrc.in.gov

Space is limited and, due to the high anticipated demand for these seminars, you are encouraged to register early.

The Indiana Civil Rights Commission enforces the Indiana civil rights laws and provides education and services to the public in an effort to ensure equal opportunity for all Hoosiers and visitors to the State of Indiana.
